The Illahee Community Club (ICC) was reorganized in 2008/2009 to expand its boundary (Port of Illahee) and purposes (to support restoration and preservation). The Club is a 501(c)3 nonprofit public charity with contributions tax deductible, as allowed by law. Gifts and bequests are appreciated.

The purposes of the Illahee Community Club are:

- To restore, preserve, and maintain the Illahee community as an historic, scenic, and culturally significant area.
- To combat community deterioration through remedial actions such as elimination of fecal coliform and storm water pollution.
- To restore and preserve the Illahee area of Puget Sound, including freshwater, wetlands, floodplains, estuary, nearshore, marine, and upland habitats for the benefit and education of the general public.
- To restore and preserve the following items adversely impacting the Illahee Creek Watershed as delineated in the Department of Ecology / Port of Illahee funded Parametrix Report, "Illahee Creek Watershed Surface Water Management Plan," which are:
Surface Water Runoff, Landslides, Reduced Aquifer Recharge, Water Quality, Functionality of Illahee Creek Culvert, Degraded Salmonid Habitat.
- To restore and preserve the natural features of the Illahee area including the Illahee Preserve (a Kitsap County Heritage Park), Illahee State Park, and area wildlife and habitat for the benefit and education of the general public.
- To advocate for accomplishment of the goals and objectives in the Illahee Community Plan that support the restoration and preservation of the local Puget Sound area for the benefit and education of the general public.
- To solicit and obtain financial support for the education, restoration, and preservation of the aforementioned items and other impacts adversely affecting the Illahee area of Puget Sound.
- To work with private landowners, public water groups, schools, land trusts, government agencies, public and private associations, businesses, service groups, foundations, Indian tribes, and others to accomplish the above purposes.
